International Performance Marketing

Think Global, act Local is a phrase that we all know but do all agencies really deliver what they promise? We at blueSummit believe that successful business relationships can only be developed and sustained on an international level by truly working in this way.

blueSummit works together with worldwide hubs from our three central European locations: Munich, Hamburg and Vienna. In all our business partnerships we fully utilize our global partner's market intelligence.

We believe very strongly in centralized performance management. Headquartered in Munich with technology and strategic partners around the globe we are your agency for international performance marketing.
